WHEN AND HOW TO ORDER BULBS

The best time to order your Bulbs is just as soon as this catalog reaches you. The Bulbs may not have arrived by then, but your order will be given immediate attention, and be filled just as soon as the stock arrives. At the first of the season there are no sorts sold out, and besides the Bulbs flower better when planted early.

25 of any one variety supplied at the 100 rate except late Gladiolus which are especially priced in this quantity. Please include amount of California Retail Sales Tax with your remittance.

We prepay charges within the 4th zone on all Bulbs listed in this catalog. Herbaceous and Perennial Plants are not prepaid, so if desired by Parcel Post add postage as stated on page 19.

HOW TO HANDLE BULBS WHEN THROUGH BLOOMING

Spring flowering bulbs can be left in the ground after blooming provided they are in an isolated place where they can remain dry throughout the summer, but in most gardens the space is too limited to warrant this as continuation of bloom is desired. If this is the case, it is advisable to lift up the bulbs carefully after they are through bloom, preferably a few weeks later, and transplant them close together in any convenient corner of the garden; give them one good watering and let them remain until the foliage has died down completely, at which time the bulbs will be fully ripened and can be dug up and stored away in shallow trays in a cool, airy place until the proper time to set them out again. Never cut off the foliage when green as this will weaken the bulbs and often prevent them from blooming. If bulbs are left in the ground after the blooming season, where other plants are growing, they may rot or fail to bloom the following season as they will not have the proper rest.

PREPARED BULB FIBRE

This material is very popular for growing bulbs in, and is especially adapted for use in the home, being clean and odorless.

It contains all the necessary plant food for almost all kinds of plants.

Before using it should be thoroughly moistened, and the bulbs planted in the same way as if soil were used. A special feature of this material is that Bulbs can be grown in it in jardinières, fern dishes and other receptacles without drainage. After watering, the jardinières or dishes should be turned on side to allow any surplus water to drain off.

The treatment after planting in this material is the same as when planted in soil.

Fibre comes moist (postage additional): 1 lb., 15c; 2 lbs., 25c; 10 lbs., $1.00; 25 lbs., $2.25.

NON-WARRANTY

Most of the failures with seeds and bulbs are due to causes entirely beyond our control, such as unfavorable weather, too deep or too shallow planting, slugs, etc.; therefore, Hallawell Seed Co. gives no warranty, express or implied, as to description, purity, productiveness, or any other matter of any seeds, plants, bulbs, etc., they send out, and will be in no way responsible for the crop. If the purchaser does not accept the goods on these terms they are to be returned at once.

SPECIAL NOTICE: We shall esteem it a great favor if you will give us below, the NAMES and ADDRESSES of any of your friends that are interested in gardening. We wish to send them our CATALOG.

[illegible]

The most satisfactory of all Tulips. They are stately in appearance, attaining a height of 24 to 30 inches, and producing beautiful globular flowers of heavy texture in a large range of colors. They bloom in March and April and are unsurpassed for bedding and cutting.

Tulips will grow in any good garden soil, to which may be added a little bone meal. If soil is heavy, place a handful of sand at the base of each bulb. Well rotted cow manure may be used if dug in ten days or more previous to planting.

In light soil, Tulips should be planted six inches deep and in heavier soil five inches deep, above the top of the bulb. Plant bulbs about five or six inches, or more, apart. After planting, give a thorough watering; continue watering every week if no rain has fallen in the meantime.

Hyacinths

Hyacinths are very fragrant and come in a great variety of colors. They make a magnificent display when grown outside in a bed. They are also very satisfactory when grown in pots or in glasses of water. We are listing the single type only, as they are far superior to the double, and more certain to bloom. For outdoor culture, set the bulbs so that the tops will be 3 or 4 inches below the surface and 6 to 10 inches apart. For pot culture use a 4-inch pot for a bulb or a large pot for 2 or 3 bulbs, and leave the tops of the bulbs just above the surface. After potting give a good watering and set away in a cool place and cover with coal ashes or sand until thoroughly rooted, which takes from 8 to 10 weeks. During this time do not allow them to become dry. They may then be set in a cool light place until the flower spikes have developed, when they may be placed wherever they are wanted.

LILIES

Lilies are benefited by shade about the roots and stems, but do not do well with shade about their heads, so should be planted among fairly dwarf growing shrubs, ferns or herbaceous plants to give the mature stem the protection it craves from the too great heat of the sun and to keep the ground around the bulb more or less cool.

The soil for lilies should be fibrous and rooty, to which should be added some leaf mold or peat, and should be deeply dug. Sharp sand placed around the bulb insures good drainage. Charcoal and sulphur sprinkled about in planting tend to ward off attacks of worms and blue mold.

Plant 1 foot apart and at depths specified below. Water only lightly until they are well rooted, but liberally when about to bloom; keep free from aphids or green fly at all times.

(November and December delivery.)
